Headwear elevated for you.

One brand, every headwear need. Modern headwear with inclusive fits, and purposeful eco-friendly innovation.

Coal Headwear blends outdoor utility, modern design, and sustainable materials for a collection that is purposeful with eco-conscious innovation. Whether you're gifting employees, outfitting a team, or choosing gear that represents your brand's values, Coal Headwear delivers balanced function and form: products that perform, and look good doing it.

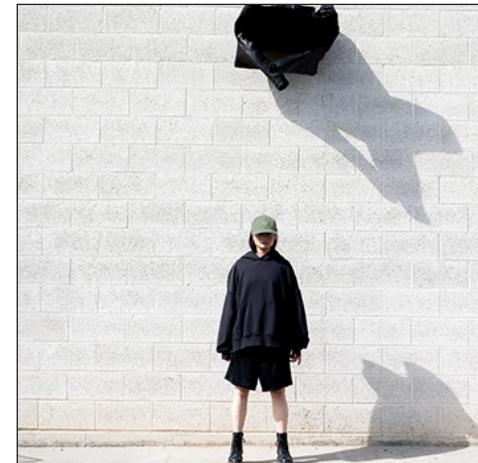

Authentically Outdoor

Every piece is made for movement. From moisture-wicking technical fabrics to recycled knits, Coal products are designed to go where you go, with comfort and purpose.

Proven Performance

Created to merge technical performance with everyday versatility with a focus on sun protection, breathability, and quality craftsmanship.

Modern Aesthetic

Clean, elevated designs that express individuality and current fashion, without sacrificing function.
